

AMPHIBIAN WATCH
INDIVIDUAL WETLAND RECORD
2010-2011

My name: _____

My school: _____ My teacher: _____

My wetland is located nearest to:

Street address: _____

Cross-streets: _____

Landmark: _____

My wetland is: _____ (check every box that applies)

- A natural lake.
- A natural marsh (standing water with lots of cattails, rushes)
- A dug (artificial) pond. It is about _____ years old.
- A vernal pool (a meadow or field that fills with water in winter).
- A wet woodland (alders, aspens, crabapples, other deciduous trees).
- A bog (thick cushiony mosses, wet most of the year)
- My wetland includes a stream.
- A road goes through my wetland.
- There is a farm (barn, animals, hayfields) next to my wetland.
- There are houses next to my wetland. How many? _____
- People fish in my wetland.
- People hunt ducks or other birds in my wetland.
- There is a newt trail near my wetland.

ATTACH A PHOTOGRAPH and MARK THE CLASSROOM MAP

Amphibian Watch field notes

Remember to write in the date every time you visit your wetland!

What I saw or heard (write in numbers):

	October		November		December
	Date:	Date:	Date:	Date:	Date:	Date:
Chorus frog
Red-legged frog
American bullfrog
Western toad
Rough-skinned newt
Northwest salamander
Long-toed salamander
Oregon ensatina*
Other salamander*
Western pond turtle
Western painted turtle
Red-eared slider
Belted kingfisher
Great blue heron

*Be sure to take a photograph!

Other interesting things I saw:

Amphibian Watch field notes

Remember to write in the date every time you visit your wetland!

What I saw or heard (write in numbers):

	January		February		March
	Date:	Date:	Date:	Date:	Date:	Date:
Chorus frog
Red-legged frog
American bullfrog
Western toad
Rough-skinned newt
Northwest salamander
Long-toed salamander
Oregon ensatina*
Other salamander*
Western pond turtle
Western painted turtle
Red-eared slider
Belted kingfisher
Great blue heron

*Be sure to take a photograph!

Other interesting things I saw:

Amphibian Watch field notes

Remember to write in the date every time you visit your wetland!

What I saw or heard (write in numbers):

	April		May		June
	Date:	Date:	Date:	Date:	Date:	Date:
Chorus frog
Red-legged frog
American bullfrog
Western toad
Rough-skinned newt
Northwest salamander
Long-toed salamander
Oregon ensatina*
Other salamander*
Western pond turtle
Western painted turtle
Red-eared slider
Belted kingfisher
Great blue heron

*Be sure to take a photograph!

Other interesting things I saw: